

Sails to Fight Fascists

Choir Singer's 'Ghost' at Trial

GHASTLY EXHIBIT.

The vocal organs that were torn from the throat of Mrs. Mills and the course of bullets were minutely described by Dr. Otto H. Schultze (above) as he exhibited wax model of slain singer's head in Somerset, N. J., courtroom yesterday. (Photo Graphic.)

ANOTHER EXPERT TESTIFIES. One more fingerprint expert, Edward H. Schwartz of Newark, was cross-examined yesterday in effort to establish importance of marks on calling card found at murder scene. Schwartz admitted the card had been left unprotected for several days. (Photo Graphic.)

WINS $5,000 VERDICT. A jury in the Supreme Court yesterday awarded $5,000 to Miss Marguerite McCarton (above), vaudeville actress who sued William Moulton, broker, for damages for injuries received when struck by his auto. (Graphic.)
